SACYR FOUNDATION SIGNS A COLLABORATION AGREEMENT WITH ALDEAS INFANTILES SOS

• The company will cooperate as "Builder of the future" and will support the work that this child care organization carries out in the Aldea Infantil SOS of Pachacamac, in Lima (Peru)

Madrid, December 20th, 2017.- Sacyr Foundation has signed a collaboration agreement with Aldeas Infantiles SOS as "Builder of the future", through which it will support the work that this organization carries out in the Aldea of Pachacamac, in Lima (Peru), which offers a home and a family to 52 children deprived of parental care.

The Aldea of Pachacamac was built near Lima between 1997 and 2004, it offers 10 SOS homes and has its own sports facilities, where children can play and have fun. Several groups of siblings live in each home under the care of a prestigious educator, which offers these children the care and affection they need for their full development.

“We are proud to collaborate with this program to support children and to provide value to the communities in which we work," said Sacyr’s Chairman Manuel Manrique.

Builders of the future

Being a “Builder of the Future” is a way of channeling the company’s commitment, which contributes to the maintenance of one of the 25 villages that the NGO finances in our country, Latin America and Africa. In addition, it serves to promote other linked programs that complement the work of SOS Children’s Villages, and respond to the growing social demand within the area of children, childhood and families in at-risk situations.

This agreement is part of the work of the Sacyr Foundation to promote, encourage and support children-related, educational, cultural, sports and environmental projects that add value to the communities where the group carries out its activity. This work is part of the company’s Corporate Responsibility Plan.

Aldeas Infantiles SOS has been operating in Spain for 50 years. Five decades dedicated to providing a home and a family to those children who are not able to live with their parents; to accompany young people in need until they reach full social and labor integration; and to strengthen vulnerable families to prevent parents and children from separating. During last year, the organization helped from our country more than 25,500 children and young people.

Sacyr is a multinational infrastructures and services company with more than 26,000 employees in 30 countries. In Latin America, Sacyr contributes to the development of local economies through its experience and knowledge in infrastructure and industrial projects in Colombia, Bolivia, Chile, Peru, Ecuador, Mexico, Paraguay, Uruguay, Brazil and Panama.

Manuel Manrique, Sacyr’s Chairman, and Pedro Puig, President of Aldeas Infantiles SOS España, during the signing of the agreement.